

Latest News

Contributed by Simone Fraser
Sunday, 26 July 2009
Last Updated Monday, 12 April 2010

Book Launch: Alan Peascod- Artist of exceptional talent - will be launched on the 29th April 2010 in Gulgong NSW. Later launches will be in Sydney, Melbourne and Canberra.

See www.peascod.com for details

Simone Fraser is represented in Sydney by:

Sabbia Gallery, 120 Glenmore Road Paddington Sydney. NSW 2021

New work can be viewed at the gallery and on their website

www.sabbiagallery.com.au

and outside Sydney by:

Narek Galleries

Old Tanja Church

1140 Tathra to Bermagui Road

Tanja NSW 2550

OPEN FRIDAY, SATURDAY, SUNDAY AND MONDAY 10.30 - 5.30PM

or by appointment.

Director: Karen O'Clery

www.narekgalleries.com

Phone: 61 2 6494 0112

Cudgegong Gallery Gulgong NSW

www.cudgegonggallery.com.au

Lake Macquarie City Art Gallery

Promote Contemporary Craft is an initiative of the gallery. Its website and exhibition program are designed to support craft practitioners in New South Wales.

Outside Sydney work can also be viewed at:

Cudgegong Gallery Gulgong NSW

Next exhibition:

"A new look" - functional ceramics

November 2009

www.cudgegonggallery.com.au

Other news:

Current articles:

Craft Arts International Issue #71 pp60-63

"The Vessel in Context" by Nola Anderson

Nola Anderson lives in Canberra and has been writing on decorative arts in Australia for the last 25 years.

Ceramics Art and Perception Issue #69 pp 88-92

"Raw Earth" by Karen Finch

Read the article written by the late Alan Peascod in:

Ceramics Art and Perception No. 60 p 47

'Simone Fraser's Vessel Forms'

Photography by Greg Piper:

www.gregpiper.com.au